

BYLAWS OF CENTRAL JERSEY RADIO CONTROL CLUB, INC.

ARTICLE I. Name, Incorporation, and Affiliation.

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be Central Jersey Radio Control Club, Inc., and shall hereinafter be referred to and designated as the CJRCC.

Section 2. The CJRCC is a non-profit corporation organized under the provisions of Title 15 of the Revised Statutes of New Jersey 1937 and the acts as mandatory thereof of supplemental thereto.

Section 3. The CJRCC is a Charter Club of the Academy of Model Aeronautics, and as such is subject to the rules and regulations of the AMA.

Section 4. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the corporation's net assets are not to be distributed to the members of the corporation, but are to be given to the Academy of Model Aeronautics scholarship fund. (6/81)

ARTICLE II. Purposes.

The primary purpose of the CJRCC is to provide a forum for individuals interested in radio controlled model aircraft. More specific purposes are listed below, but should not be considered exclusive:

- a. To provide authorized representation to the Academy of Model Aeronautics.
- b. To provide organized search and management of flying fields.
- c. To hold meetings to conduct business and inform members.
- d. To arrange and direct inter club contests.
- e. To arrange and manage intra club contests and activities.

ARTICLE III. Membership.

Section 1. Any individual who indicates an interest in building and/or flying radio controlled model aircraft shall be eligible for membership in the CJRCC, subject to the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the membership present at any regularly scheduled monthly business meeting. The following classes of membership are established:

- a. Member - Any individual over 16 years of age. Membership shall include any children in the member's immediate family under 16 years of age and spouse if an AMA member. (5/81)
- b. Junior Member - Any individual under 16 years of age (who is not the child of a member.)
- c. Honorary Member - An individual who has made an outstanding material contribution to the welfare of the CJRCC or the AMA. Honorary Members are entitled to all privileges of the CJRCC - but must obtain their own AMA license to participate in flying activities. The term "Honorary Membership" shall be stipulated in their nomination.
- d. Affiliate Member – An individual that has been a "Member" of CJRCC for a minimum of "20" continuous years, is at least 60 years old, and is no longer active in the hobby but wishes to remain in contact with CJRCC. Affiliate Members will be entitled to receive the club newsletter only and participate as a guest in non-flying club functions. This member will not have the rights of a full member. The term "Affiliate Member" shall be stipulated in their nomination. The "Affiliate Member" must maintain their own membership in the AMA. (07/06)

ARTICLE IV. Termination and Reinstatement of Membership.

Section 1. Any member in good standing may terminate his membership by notifying the CJRCC in writing.

Section 2. The membership of any member of the CJRCC may be terminated for repeated or flagrant Violation of the Bylaws or Rules and Regulations of the CJRCC by 2/3 vote of the membership present at any regularly scheduled monthly business meeting. The member will be given 30 days written notice before the meeting at which the hearing is held and a vote is taken.

Section 3. A person whose membership is terminated under Section One or Two may reapply for membership after one calendar year following such termination.

ARTICLE V. Dues.

Section 1. Dues for all classes of membership will be set by the Executive Board subject to a majority vote of the members present at a regularly scheduled monthly business meeting.

Section 2. Dues are to be paid by January 1. After a 30-day grace period, members will be dropped from the membership roll. A member dropped in this manner may reapply thereafter upon paying an initiation fee. (5/81)

ARTICLE VI. Books and Records.

Section 1. The CJRCC shall keep correct and complete books and records of accounts and minutes of business meetings.

Section 2. A record of the names, addresses, AMA number of members entitled to vote shall be kept.

ARTICLE VII. Meetings.

Section 1. There will be one regularly scheduled monthly business meeting.

Section 2. Additional meetings may be held as deemed desirable by the membership. Official business will be conducted at these meetings only by written notice to the membership at least 7 days prior to the meeting.

ARTICLE VIII. Nominations and elections.

Section 1. CJRCC officers shall be nominated by the Executive Board annually. Additional nominees will be accepted from the membership at the nomination meeting.

Section 2. The nomination meeting shall be the November business meeting. Ballots shall be counted during the December business meeting.

ARTICLE IX Officers.

Section 1. The officers of CJRCC shall be a President, Vice President, Treasurer, Recording Secretary, and Membership Secretary. Term of office for all offices shall be one calendar year. Term of office shall begin on January 1 following the election. CJRCC officers shall have their club and AMA dues paid by the club. (11/79)

Section 2. In the event of death, incapacity, inactivity or resignation of any officer, the Executive Board shall replace the officer.

Section 3. The President shall be the head of the club; may preside at all meetings and shall, ex-officio, be a member of all regular and special committees. He shall have the authority to establish or dissolve committees, appoint or remove committee chairmen, make final and binding decisions relative to disputes and protests.

Section 4. The Vice President shall substitute for the President at all functions at which the President should attend, but cannot. If the Vice President is not available, the President may appoint someone as presiding officer for that meeting. And be the coordinator of requested extra curricular activities. (3/85)

Section 5. The Treasurer shall monitor financial affairs of the club, and shall maintain accurate financial accounts.

Section 6. The Recording Secretary shall take minutes at all business meetings and shall maintain all non-financial and non-membership records and correspondence.

Section 7. The Membership Secretary shall maintain records of all active members, and correspond with the AMA concerning membership affairs.

ARTICLE X. Executive Board. (6/75)

Section 1. The management of the affairs of the CJRCC shall be by the executive board. Their (executive board) decisions:

- a. Are binding on all members.
- b. Must be announced at the next membership meeting following the board meeting of which said decisions were made.

- c. May be revoked by 2/3rds of the members present at the next meeting following the membership meeting of which the decision was announced

Section 2. The executive board shall be composed of the President, Vice President, Treasurer, Recording Secretary, Membership Secretary, Immediate Past President, Club Contest Coordinator, four (4) members appointed by the President and one member for each flying field operated by and under the supervision of CJRRC. The board members that are to represent the flying fields will be elected by the members that fly at each field under a procedure that will be set by the President elect. The election of the board members that are to represent the flying fields is to be completed before the new board convenes their first meeting. (6/81)

ARTICLE XI. Order of Business.

Section 1. The order of business for each monthly business meeting shall be determined by the President with the recommendations of the Executive Board. The President shall be the chairman of the meeting. The rules governing all such meetings shall be determined by the Executive Board.

ARTICLE XII. Amendments.

Section 1. These bylaws shall be effective when adopted by the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the present membership in attendance. Thereafter, amendment of these bylaws may be made by an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the membership present. Amendments may be proposed by any member in good standing. Voting on Amendments shall be at the next regularly scheduled monthly business meeting. There must be, however, at least 10 days notice by mail of such proposed changes.

Revision notice: These by-laws have been updated and corrected as of 5/15/85. All changes are noted at the end of the change with the month and year. Subsection d. was added to Article III, Section 1 and was voted and passed on June 13, 2006.
